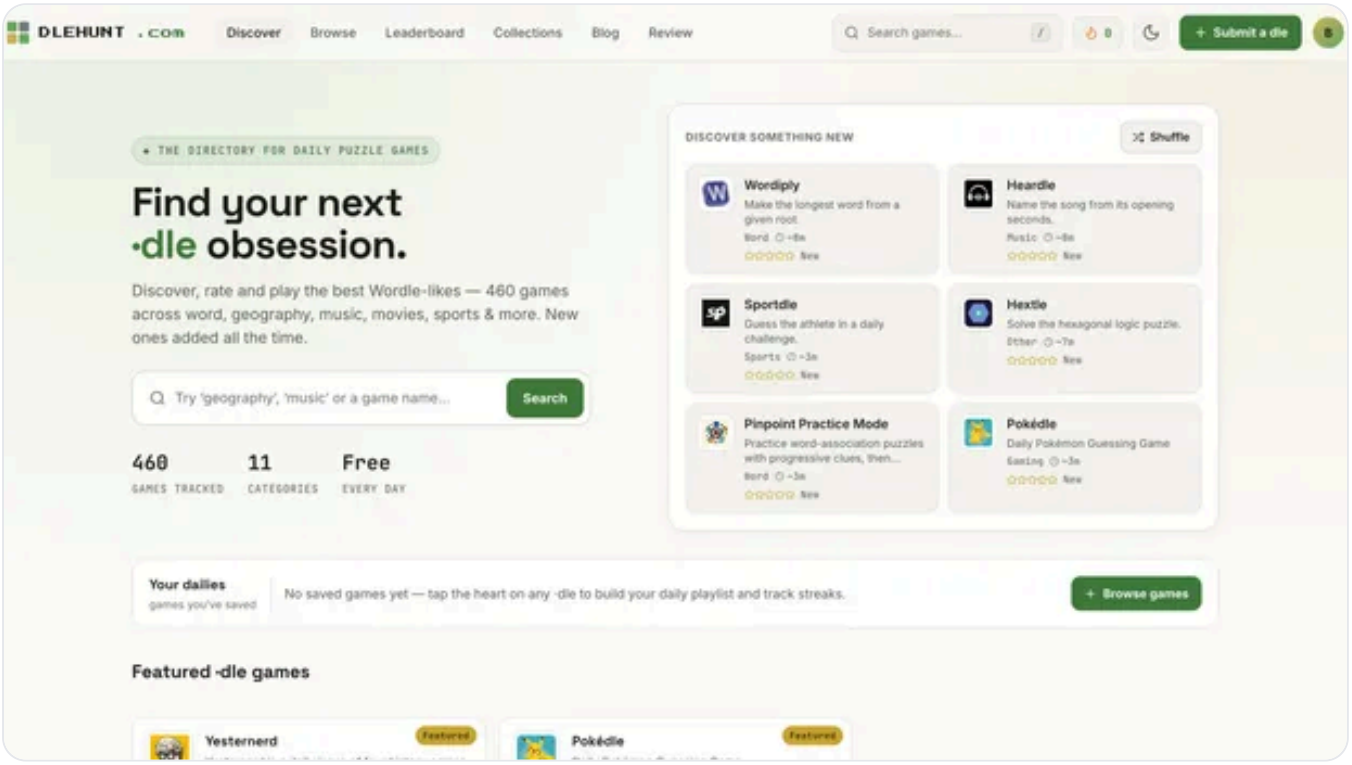
Dle Hunt

The directory for daily puzzle games: discover, rate, and play 465+ Wordle-likes across word, geography, music, movies, sports, and more.



About

Dle Hunt is a curated directory of dle games that helps you discover, rate, and play daily puzzle games like Wordle across word, geography, music, movies, sports, math, and trivia. The site tracks 465 games in 11 categories and adds new titles regularly. You can browse featured games, use a random shuffle button, save favorites to your daily playlist, and check community leaderboards for top rated, most played, and most favorited puzzles.

What is Dle Hunt — a dle games directory

word, geography, music, movies, sports, math, trivia, and other. The site helps players find their next daily obsession by combining search, category browsing, random shuffle, community leaderboards, and a personal save list. Each game card shows approximate play time, difficulty, and whether it is new, with featured picks highlighted by the editor.

Key features

- Large catalog: 465+ dle games, with new titles added regularly.
- Eleven categories including word, geography, music, movies, sports, math, and trivia.
- Discovery tools: search bar, category filters, and a shuffle button that picks a random game.
- Community leaderboards: "Top rated", "Most played", and "Most favorited" rankings based on user activity.
- Personal daily playlist: tap the heart on any game to save it to "Your dailies" and track streaks.
- Featured games: curated selection such as Yesternerd (four history puzzles daily) and Pokédle.
- Submit a dle: creators can add their own game via the Submit page.
- Detailed game entries: each listing includes estimated play time, difficulty, rating, and whether it is newly added.

How to use it

- Open dlehunt.com in any modern browser; no download or sign-up is needed to browse.
- Use the search bar or Browse menu to filter by category, or click Shuffle to get a random recommendation.
- Click any game card to view details and follow the external link to play.
- To build your daily routine, tap the heart icon on games you like; they appear in the "Your dailies" section.
- After playing, return to Dle Hunt and rate the game to help community leaderboards.
- If you create a dle, choose "Submit a dle" and log in to add it to the directory.

- Fans of Wordle and other daily puzzle games who want variety beyond the original five-letter word challenge.
- Players who enjoy geography, music, movie, sports, math, or trivia puzzles (e.g., GeoConnections, Cinematrix, Birdle).
- Casual gamers looking for short daily games—most listings show ~3 minutes play time.
- Puzzle designers and indie developers who want to list their games and get early feedback.

What to know before you use it

- Dle Hunt is a directory, not a game host; every game link goes to an external site, which may have its own ads, sign-ups, or paywalls.
- Some games have limited availability: for example, Cinematrix changes every weekday, and Birdle offers fewer guesses (six) than standard Wordle, so check each game's rules.
- Community ratings may be sparse for newly submitted games; a 5.0 rating from one user, like Yesternerd's, should not be treated as a consensus.
- The site itself appears free to use, but the source does not detail if all features (submit, save, rate) require an account; a Log in link is present.
- For official versions of major daily puzzles (e.g., Wordle by The New York Times), use the official source—Dle Hunt is for discovery, not authoritative content.

In short, use this dle games directory to expand your daily puzzle routine, but verify rules on official sites when accuracy matters.
